

First Bank In U.S. Created In This State To Back Army

How the early patriots of the first American government solved their problems for money to purchase supplies for their bid for freedom is another Pennsylvania story—a story that had a happy, if somewhat prolonged ending.

It is appropriate to relate the story of America's first bank in conjunction with Pennsylvania Week, September 26 to October 2, since the Pennsylvania State Bankers' Association is cooperating with the plans for the statewide observance sponsored by the Pennsylvania Department of Commerce.

The setting for this story of the first financial endeavor is Philadelphia, the chaotic, wartime Philadelphia of 1780. Frontier and metropolis still rubbed shoulders in the narrow, cobbled street; buckskin and lace, towlath and velvet jostled in the city crowds, and the lathered horses of dispatch riders, in from distant battlefields, panted in the dust clouds under the trees near Independence Hall. It was the 17th day of June.

Bank for Armies

Before the door of the State House, a crier monotonously intoned the contents of a freshly-inked paper he held in his hands. A curious knot of people listened intently, while others passed with but a short halt or a quick glance at the proclaimer. "In order to support the credit of a bank to be established . . . for the armies of the United States. . . ."

The voice droned on. And, with a minimum of ceremony, or even general public knowledge, the first banking establishment in the United States was launched.

Behind all this was a powerful and significant drama, compounded of a handful of men against a discouraging array of economic enemies. The war was drawing to a close, yet these men had no way of knowing that. Meanwhile, the exhausted and sometimes rebellious armies of the infant nation had become an appalling liability to a desperate government. The original French specie was gone, and European credit was a minus quantity. There was virtually no money with which to carry on the expensive campaigns that gave tantalizing promise of final victory in the south.

No Power To Tax

The new government, under the Articles of Confederation—which were not yet completely ratified—had no power of taxation. And the man in the street was becoming weary and cynical.

The crisis had long been building, and now in the spring of 1780, it came to a head. Robert Morris, Secretary of the Treasury, had proposed the establishment of a bank in Philadelphia, with capital of $400,000, to supply the Government with money. But Congress, jittery because of its as-yet-undetermined powers, declined to take immediate action.

Morris then turned to his fellow Philadelphians, and in a blunt appeal to their patriotism, proposed a general subscription to guarantee the credit of the armies. The plan for this subscription, or "bank," was prepared by a group of citizens, and it set forth the detailed operation of the institution. Back of it was the quiet and unobtrusive Jewish genius, the great patriot—Haym Salomon.

92 Subscribers

Ninety-two subscribers were obtained, none of whom pledged less than 1,000 pounds, Pennsylvania currency, payable in gold or silver. Morris and McLenachan headed the list with subscriptions of 10,000 pounds each.

This subscription list, published on June 17, 1780, was headed by a declaration of purpose, which read in part:

"We, the subscribers, deeply impressed with the sentiments that on such an occasion should govern us, in the prosecution of a war, in the event of which, our own freedom and that of our posterity and the freedom and independence of the United States are all involved, hereby severally pledge our property and credit . . . in order to support the credit of a bank to be established for furnishing a supply of provisions for the armies of the United States."

Significant Milestone

This "bank" functioned in an office on Front Street, just around the corner from Walnut street, Philadelphia.

DR. WENTZ TO TELL OF WORLD CHURCH PARLEY

The Methodist-Presbyterian Sunday Evening Hour series for the coming season will be inaugurated in the Methodist church Sunday with an address by Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz, president of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological seminary who last week returned from a trip to Europe.

"Amsterdam — 1948" will be the theme of Dr. Wentz's address in which he will tell of the first assembly of the World Council of Churches at Amsterdam, Holland, in August. Dr. Wentz was one of the four delegates from the United States to attend the conference.

Dr. Wentz has served as a member of the World Council's provisional committee. He was accompanied on the European trip by his son, the Rev. Frederick K. Wentz, who several months ago resigned the pastorate of a Lutheran church at Culver City, Calif.

Dr. Wentz sailed for Europe late in July, going first to The Hague. Early in August he went to Geneva to work in the offices of the Lutheran World Federation and the World Council of Churches. Later he went to Utrecht for the meeting of the executive committee of the Lutheran World Federation. From there he went to Amsterdam. After the World Council conference, Dr. Wentz lectured in Hannover, Germany.

The service Sunday will begin at 7:30 o'clock and will be conducted by the host pastor, the Rev. Floyd A. Carroll and the Rev. H. S. Ecker, representing the local Presbyterian church which he is serving as moderator while it is without a pastor.

The Sunday Evening Hour programs will be held weekly throughout the fall, winter and spring and will bring prominent church figures and laymen and well-known choirs here.

4 COMMUNIONS AT ST. JAMES

Holy Communion will be celebrated at St. James Lutheran this evening at 7:30 o'clock. On Sunday there will be three Communion services, the first in the morning at 10:30 o'clock, the second in the afternoon at 4 o'clock and the third in the evening at 7 o'clock.

Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor, will be the liturgist for the services, assisted in the distribution of the elements by the Rev. Raymond F. Wieder. At the service this evening, Rev. Mr. Wieder will give the communion meditation. On Sunday Dr. Gresh will speak at all the services.

Special music has been prepared by the four choirs under the direction of Prof. Richard B. Shade. The Junior choir will sing tonight, presenting the anthem "Sanctus" by Franz Schubert. At the 10:30 service on Sunday morning the Senior High School choir will render the anthem "He That Dwelleth" by J. Lamont Galbraith with alto solo by Yvonne Forry. At the 4 o'clock service the Senior choir will offer the anthem "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears" by J. T. Kidd. At the last Communion service on Sunday evening the Junior High School choir will sing the anthem "Lord, For Thy Tender Mercies' Sake" by R. Farant.

New members will be received into the fellowship of the church at the 4 o'clock Communion service on Sunday afternoon. A special baptismal service will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Bircher Given Certificate For Operating Good Airport

Richard Bircher, operator of the Gettysburg Airport, Thursday received the "Good Airport Operating Practice Certificate for 1948," awarded by the National Aeronautics association. It was forwarded by the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission of the Pennsylvania Department of Commerce.

"Your willingness to improve your facilities to meet the requirements of the certificate is appreciated by the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission, and the Commission sincerely hopes that Pennsylvania will again lead the nation in having the largest number of awards," said the letter from John W. MacFarlane, supervising aviation inspector, which accompanied the certificate.

The Gettysburg Airport terminated all of its GI training Thursday, and announced today that henceforth its facilities will be available in entirety for private training. The last of the more than 100 GTs who took flight training since 1946 at the local airport received their private pilot's licenses on Tuesday. They were: Francis Eberhardt, Get-

Draft Board Adds 19 To 1-A List

Adams county's draft board continued classification at a meeting Tuesday night adding 19 more names to the list of those in 1-A, and bringing the total in 1-A to 35. All are men of 24 or 25 years of age. The cards of those under that age have not yet been classified.

The board learned that examination of the first to be called for armed force service under the new draft will begin October 11, but received no word as to when any Adams countians will be called for duty, or the number that might be required from the county for the October draft call.

ROUND-UP HELD BY 'Y-TEENS'

The annual fall Round-Up of the Y-Teens was held at the YWCA Thursday afternoon with 70 young girls present. Mrs. George Stauffer, board member in charge of youth work, presided. Mrs. John Weischohn led group singing and the girls performed stunts.

Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, president of the board of directors, welcomed the group in the name of the "YW" and explained its official purpose as "a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common lives those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians." She stressed the fact that it takes "good girls to make good women to make a good nation."

Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. William T. Timmins, Jr., and Mrs. Charles W. Ogden and the girls split up into age groups.

The Seventh and Eighth grade group will be in charge of Miss Barbara Oyler and Miss Betty Britcher, while Mrs. Wallace Fisher and one other adviser, to be selected, will direct the work of the Freshman-Sophomore group.

Both groups decided to meet after school on Thursday afternoon and next week they will have election of officers and decide on the type of handbook they want to do during the winter.

The Y-Teen committee appointed by the board for 1948-1949 comprises Mrs. Stauffer, Mrs. Ogden, Mrs. Weischohn, Mrs. Timmins, Mrs. Dorothy Wicker, Miss Edith Carbaugh and Mrs. Henrietta Blocher. A group of Y-Teens is also in process of formation in Biglerville under the direction of Mrs. Pettrow.

Russia Tells UN America Seeks War; Warns U.S. No Longer Has Atom Monopoly

Paris, Oct. 1 (AP)—Russia accused the United States today of seeking war and said the Americans have no monopoly on the atom bomb.

In a violent attack on U. S. atomic policy, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky told the 58-member United Nations political committee that the United States is pursuing "war aims."

Vishinsky added: "It is a mistake to think that there is just one state which has a monopoly over atomic energy and the atomic bomb. It is useless to think of such a thing. It is useless to hope for that, because this is fraught with dire and dangerous consequences and miscalculations."

Later in his speech, Vishinsky repeated what was interpreted as a hint that Russia also has an atom bomb. He said the United States was building a bomb stockpile "in the illusion that America has a monopoly on the atom bomb."

"This is an interesting illusion, particularly for the Republican Presidential candidate, Mr. Thomas E. Dewey, who, I learn, has said that America possesses exclusively the secret of the atom x x x."

Vishinsky also had harsh words for President Truman. He quoted

23 Priceless Documents On Freedom Train Were Written By, About, Or In Pennsylvania

Twenty-three of the 132 exhibits on the Freedom Train have a particular Pennsylvania connection in that they were written either by or about Pennsylvanians or were written in Pennsylvania. Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, head of the history department at Gettysburg college and president of the Pennsylvania Historical Society, told an audience Thursday evening at the YWCA.

Doctor Fortenbaugh's talk, "Pennsylvania's Contribution to the Freedom Train," was presented as the first of a series of similar discussions by the expansion committee of the YWCA.

"It is a rich heritage we of Pennsylvania have," Doctor Fortenbaugh said in his talk which was part of the Pennsylvania Week celebration by the YWCA. "And we have an even greater heritage which Pennsylvania is privileged to share—the heritage of America and of Freedom in general. Pennsylvania has not only taken but has given toward the cause of freedom and it is appropriate that Gettysburg has been chosen to start the second year's tour of the Freedom Train. At first it was thought that a one year tour by the Freedom Train would be enough—but the requests were so numerous that it was decided to continue the tour for a second year, and we have the privilege of having been selected as the place where the second tour will begin."

Valuable Display

"Three cars on the Freedom Train contain the exhibit of priceless documents, a unique thing, illustrating man's search for freedom. Of the exhibit 115 articles are true documents, six are flags and 11 are bonds. The oldest of the bonds is a Philadelphia contribution. It is a bond issued in 1779 when Philadelphia was the seat of our government."

"Included in the displays are two letters with Pennsylvania connections. The first is a letter from George Washington to Gouverneur Morris at Philadelphia, describing conditions in the army during the winter of 1780, which is exhibit number 18 on the train. The second is exhibit number 70, a letter from John Paul Jones to Gouverneur Morris in 1872 offering Jones' services."

Paine's 'Common Sense'

"There are three books in the collections, two written in Philadelphia and the other printed there. One is a copy of Tom Paine's 'Common Sense,' which sold 100,000 and was probably the first American best seller. Paine, a Philadelphia newspaperman, wrote the pamphlet in 1776 and it crystallized opinion in the colonies for freedom. It is exhibit number 14. Exhibit No. 15 is a copy of another book written by Thomas Paine. Written at the request of George Washington when the cause of the American armies seemed lost, it is entitled 'The American Crisis' and starts with the famous words, 'These are the times that try men's souls.' It was first printed in the Pennsylvania Journal. The third book is an article on freedom of the press written in 1799 against the alien and sedition act and was printed in Philadelphia."

Priceless Letter

"Exhibit number eight is unique in that it is the only letter we have written by a signer of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, the date of the signing, which gives (Please Turn To Page 2)

Over 200,000 Book Loans Made By County Library; Now In Community Chest

Since its establishment in January 5, 1945, the Adams County Free Library has lent sufficient books to provide every man, woman and child in the county with slightly more than five books each.

Reports of the library, one of the groups which will receive an allocation of money from the Community Chest, show that since the library opened less than three years ago a total of 208,156 volumes (as of the end of August) had been distributed.

Most of those books have gone to school children. Through the bookmobile, the library distributed 144,317 volumes to school children throughout the county during the 30-month period. The bookmobile, which each month visits schools during the school year in the county, carries 1,000 books at a time, thus permitting it to keep up with the tremendous demand. Eighty-one schools are now visited by the bookmobile on its rounds, including five in York county which are under the East Berlin joint school system.

Each year since its establishment, the library has grown in the amount of service rendered. Where 46,900 books was the total circulation in 1946, 93,702 were circulated in 1947 and up to the end of August this year 87,554 books were circulated. Since its purchase the bookmobile has traveled over 10,000 miles.

At present the number of books on hand in the library—the main library, branches, schools and rural book stations totals more than 13,000.

The library's income goes for obvious things—to buy new books, to maintain and operate the bookmobile, rent for the library itself, repair and maintenance of books

DRY SEPTEMBER IS NEAR RECORD; '48 RAINS OFF

September ended Thursday more than two and a half inches short of its normal amount of rainfall and became one of the four driest Septembers in Gettysburg weather records for the last 45 years.

Only 89 inches of rain fell here in the 30-day period. The normal figure for the month is about three and a half inches.

Although last month was dry, September of last year was even more arid, weather records show. Less than a half inch of rain fell here in September, 1947. The only other comparable Septembers since 1903 as far as rainfall is concerned are September, 1943, when rainfall totaled only 46 inches and September, 1941, when the total was 65 inches. The wettest September on record here was in 1934 when more than 15 inches of rain fell.

September's shortage of rain left 1948 2.75 inches short on rainfall for the first nine months. February, June, July and September have been short on rain this year while January, March, April, May and August received slightly more than normal rainfall.

The hottest day last month was the 14th when the mercury climbed to 91 degrees, the only above-90 reading taken last month. The coldest temperatures were recorded on the 25th and 27th when minimum readings of 40 degrees were taken. On the whole, September temperatures averaged very close to normal for the month. The average temperature here last month of 66.3 degrees was only 2 degrees above the mythical "normal" figure.

Measurable amounts of rain fell on only six days and only one of those rains measured as much as a quarter inch. That occurred on Wednesday.

Eleven of the 30 days were generally clear. Eleven others were partly cloudy and eight were listed as cloudy. Southern breezes were most frequent here last month.

No frost was noted during the month.

At Arendtsville, the weather station reported an average temperature for the month of 65.2 degrees which is 1.2 degrees below normal there. The hottest day was the 14th when a reading of 91 was taken and the low for the month was reached the 25th with a reading of 40 degrees.

Rainfall for the month was 1.29 inches, a deficiency of 2.59 inches below the normal figure.

PFC. STRANG'S RITES SUNDAY

The body of Pfc. Harry Ellwood Strang, 37, South Mountain, who was killed in action in Italy May 23, 1944, will arrive this evening and funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Second Church of God, South Mountain.

The Rev. J. R. Reese will conduct the service. Reinterment will be made in Mount Zion cemetery.

Military honors will be accorded by the combined veterans' organizations.

He was born in Gettysburg, the son of Jacob and Laura Knepper Strang and lived at South Mountain since 1911. He was inducted in the United States Army in 1943. Before entering the service, he had been employed at Pennsylvania State Sanatorium at South Mountain and was a member of the Mont Alto Fish and Game association.

He was a private first class, Company D, 337th Infantry Regiment of the 85th Division.

Surviving are his parents and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Clifton Cullison, Mrs. Ida Cullison of Harrisburg; Mrs. Crist Wagman, Edward Strang and Lloyd Strang, all of South Mountain.

Friends may call at the Grove funeral home between 7 and 9 o'clock Saturday evening.

Albright Expected To Give Bullet Eleven Real Test In First Home Contest Saturday

An opening home game that promises more than the usual amount of thrills is scheduled for Memorial Field Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock when the Gettysburg college gridders clash with the rugged Albright Lions.

The Bullets were impressive in opening their season with a 28-0 victory over Drexel last Saturday at Philadelphia. Albright's coaches, Bud Smith, Lloyd Parson and Leav Fromuth, made use of the open date on the Lions' schedule, to scout the Bream-men.

Albright is making no secret of the fact they hope to give the locals a jolt. They are pinning their hopes on Johnny Maracani, 175-pound right halfback, who ran wild last year when the Lions and Bullets battled to a 13-13 draw at Reading.

Visitors' Lineup

Coach Smith has announced the following starting lineup, many of whom played against the Bream-men last year:

Left end, George Rosner, 185; left tackle, Frank Bird, 218; left guard, Bernard Yanoski, 170; center, Bill Marson, 175, or Bill Frantz, 208; right guard, Walt Cizewski, 175; right tackle, Walter Drazek, 205; right end, Bernard Koskulicz, 190; quarterback, Al Harnly, 170; left

Concert Drive Closes Saturday

The 1948 Gettysburg Concert association membership campaign closes at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

Those who have not been contacted by association workers are urged to call in person or telephone association headquarters in the Hotel Gettysburg lobby before 8 o'clock Saturday night. The telephone number is Gettysburg 727.

One hundred one memberships were reported by four workers up to 3 o'clock Friday afternoon but the majority of workers have not notified headquarters of the results of their efforts in their communities.

Adult memberships are $6 for three concerts and student tickets are $3. This also entitles local members to attend concerts in Waynesboro and Chambersburg this winter.

"OPEN HOUSE" AT CALEDONIA ON SATURDAY

Thousands of members of women's groups, their families and friends, will make pilgrimages to state parks on Saturday in observance of "Open House In Penn's Woods," one of the final features of Pennsylvania Week.

Local women, their families and others will journey to Caledonia Park. They will meet at the park office at 11 o'clock in the morning. Each will bring a basket lunch and coffee will be served to those who have their own containers. The public is invited, Mrs. E. W. Thomas, Adams county chairman, for this feature of Pennsylvania Week, said today.

A new lumbering museum which contains exhibits of old-time tools and implements, has been set up at Caledonia.

Foresters and park superintendents will act as hosts and lecturers. Gettysburg and Adams county residents who plan to attend the affair are urged to be at Caledonia at 11 a. m. for the opening of the activities.

Pay Off $7,000 On Jail Bond Issue

The Adams county treasurer this morning paid off the first $7,000 of the bonds issued for the county's new jail.

Bruce McClay, cashier of the People's State bank at East Berlin, appeared at the court house this morning with the coupons for the first series of bonds and was given the check for $7,000 to cover them. Under the plan set up at the time of the bonds were issued, $7,000 will be paid off each year until all are retired.

The payment was one of two large ones made within the past few weeks by the county treasurer. On September 15, the county sent a check for $9,000 to the Guaranty Trust company of Philadelphia, the collector for holders of various road bonds. The payments reduced the county's debt to $114,000 and is part of a program by which the county will become free of debt by 1955.

Three Are Fined On Code Charges

Melvin G. Scarlet, Mount Penn, Pa., paid a fine of $10 and costs to Justice of the Peace Ellis Stine, Fairfield, on a charge of having no registration for his automobile, state police of the Gettysburg substation, who made the arrest, said today.

Emma Jane Smith, Harrisburg, was fined $10 and costs by Justice of the Peace Elton Myers, Idaville, on a charge of reckless driving.

Donald L. Good, Lancaster, paid $10 and costs to Justice of the Peace Gerald Orndorff, New Oxford, on a speeding charge.

TRAVEL HERE RETURNS TO PRE-WAR LEVEL

Tourist traffic during the past year was the best since 1941.

That fact was disclosed this morning when the annual report made by the Gettysburg National military park showed tourist visitation during the travel year for October 1, 1947, to September 30 as 640,048.

That number was almost 10,000 more than the 630,805 who visited the Battlefield in 1947 and is a higher number than was recorded in any year since 1941 when 645,411 persons visited the field.

Dr. Frederick Tilberg, of the National Park office, who compiled the figures for the travel year, said this year's visitation was exceeded by only three other years during the past two decades. Since 1929, only three years, 1929, 1941 and 1938, which set a record of 1,554, 234 visitors, saw more than 640,000 persons here.

August Saw Peak

The Cyclorama showed an increase in visitations with a total of 19,929 persons viewing the famous painting. Of that number 16,900 were adults and 3,025 were youngsters who this year paid only a five-cent tax charge to enter. Previously a 20-cent charge was made for those under 16. In the previous year 17,600 visited the Cyclorama, of which 1,954 were children.

Buses brought 26,303 persons to Gettysburg to tour the field, and there were 812 of the buses. The remainder of the visitors arrived in 133,436 automobiles. The number of persons guided over the battlefield, in buses and cars, was 91,088.

August was the big month for tourist travel, with 134,614 here during the month. July was second high with 128,116 visitors.

Little, 200 Steinwehr avenue, was filed with the county prothonotary today by the law firm of Swope, Brown and Swope.

The complaint accused the borough of knowing that two metal crossing pieces of West Stevens street had separated by approximately six inches for some time prior to September 4, 1947, when Franchot's bicycle wheel became caught in the opening, halting the bicycle just as Little's truck was passing the youth's "bike" and struck it. The complaint states that Franchot was in the Warner hospital from September 4, to December 15 and adds that additional treatment will have to be given the youngster. EMBRYO CHILD FOUND IN SEWER

The body of an unborn male embryo child was found at 9:30 o'clock this morning at the sewage disposal plant here by Robert T. Shealer, chief operator, borough police reported.

Chief of Police Robert C. Harpster and Dr. C. G. Crist, coroner, who investigated, said the embryo was about a month and a half old, weighed 13 ounces and was seven and a half inches in length.

The body was found where the main sewer line empties into the disposal plant, Chief Harpster said, at the same point where the decapitated head of a full-term infant was found last April 27.

Despite a long and intensive investigation, in which borough police were aided by an investigator from the state police headquarters in Harrisburg, the torso of this infant was never found, and no clues as to the decapitation or parentage were unearthed.

"Probably one of the most priceless of the exhibits is number ten, Thomas Jefferson's rough draft of the Declaration of Independence. Exhibits 11, 12 and 13 have a Pennsylvania connection because they bear the signature of Ben Franklin. They are an appeal by Franklin and Silas Deane to Frederick the Great seeking to enlist his support, and copies of the Declaration of Independence and Articles of Confederation sent with the appeal.

"Exhibits 28, 29, 30 and 31 relate to the framing of the constitution at Philadelphia with number 28 being Randolph's copy of the Virginia plan; 29 is Washington's own annotated copy of the Constitution; 30 is the journal of the constitutional convention showing the entry for August 20, 1787 when the habeas corpus clause was suggested for inclusion of the Constitution and 31 is the draft report of the committee of detail of the constitutional convention showing the earliest provisions for trial by jury as part of the Constitution of the United States.

"Most interesting to Gettysburgians is Number 51, the reading copy of Lincoln's Gettysburg address, which most likely was written on the morning of November 19, 1863 at the Wills house here. Lincoln wrote part of the address at Washington and the remainder here at the Wills house on November 18. It is believed he made the reading copy on the morning of November 19.

NORTHWESTERN, NORTH CAROLINA PICKED TO WIN

By HOWARD CLAASSEN

New York, Oct. 1 (AP) — Compared to a deflated pigskin picker a punctured football is as fat and round as the national debt. So here's trying to better a .776 average suffered last week-end on 52 correct selections in 67 chances.

Notre Dame at Pittsburgh: Notre Dame is the favorite's delight. In this fray they appear as certain as taxes. Notre Dame.

North Carolina at Georgia: Last week the Georgians had a hard time catching the Chattanooga Choo Choo, 14-7. They'll never catch up with North Carolina's Choo Choo Justice. North Carolina.

Oregon at Michigan: Michigan is proud of what it did to the coast's best in the Rose Bowl game. They'll dish out more of the same Saturday. Michigan.

Picks Northwestern

Purdue at Northwestern: Purdue lost a bruiser at Notre Dame a week ago. The Wildcats had an easier time winning from UCLA. In the belief that not all the Purdue bruises have healed, the choice is Northwestern. Stanford at Washington State: The Indians have a couple of tough games under their belts. Stanford.

Columbia at Harvard: In all their years of rivalry Columbia never has scored on Harvard. The New Yorkers will correct that oversight in a hurry. Columbia.

Southern California at Ohio State: When Ohio State's ace back crashes into the Trojan line he will be a Joe Whisler in the dark. Southern California.

Dartmouth at Penn: The Quakers' great center, Charles Bednarik, still is with them. Penn.

Friday Night

Boston College over Georgetown, Detroit over Marquette, Miami (Fla.) over Rollins, Missouri over St. Louis, South Carolina over Furman, Chattanooga over Tennessee Tech, the Citadel over Presbyterian.

Saturday: East: Army over Lafayette, Holy Cross over Syracuse, Maryland over Delaware, Navy over Cornell, Penn State over Bucknell, Princeton over Brown, Rutgers over Colgate, Villanova over Duquesne, West Virginia over Temple, Yale over Connecticut, Springfield over New York University, Fordham over Kings Point, Boston University over Scranton, Amherst over Coast Guard, Muhlenberg over Youngstown, New Hampshire over Rhode Island State, Wesleyan over Bowdoin, Maine over Northeastern, Lebanon Valley over Mt. St. Mary.

Other Selections: Midwest: Illinois over Wisconsin, Indiana over Iowa, Iowa State over Kansas State, Kansas over Colorado, Miami (Ohio) over Western Reserve, Michigan State over Hawaii, Minnesota over Nebraska.

South: Auburn over Louisiana Tech, Florida over Tulsa, Mississippi State over Baylor, North Carolina State over Clemson, Virginia over Virginia Tech.

Southwest: Rice over Louisiana State, Southern Methodist over Texas Tech, Texas over New Mexico. Far West: California over St. Mary's, College of Pacific over Loyola, Oregon State over Washington, Santa Clara over Fresno State, UCLA over Idaho, Utah over Arizona, Wyoming over Colorado State.

Sunday: Canisius over St. Vincent, St. Bonaventure over Dayton, Nevada over San Francisco.

half, Bill Kroth, 155, or John Krouse, 150; right half, James Marcanti, 175; and fullback, Mike Plas-konos, 190.

The Bullets came out of last week's contest in good condition. A long scrimmage with the freshman squad Wednesday evening highlighted the week's workouts.

Local fans are especially eager to see the Bullets operate in their T formation. Against Drexel the squad appeared to have more offensive power than in many seasons and Saturday's game is expected to offer the first real test.

Probable Bullet Lineup

No change is anticipated in the Bullet lineup for Saturday. Howard Cauffman and Bob McCausland will pair off at ends; Marty Pavelic and Jack Schlegel will be at tackles; Al Reese and Gene Hummel will be the guards with Jack Gilligan or Mike Erbio at center.

Coach Bream has a host of competent backs to use and the starters will depend on whether the Bullets receive or kick at the opening of the tilt.

Ross Sachs, whose handling of the ball in the T was particularly gratifying last week, is almost a certain starter while the remainder of the ball-toting crew will be chosen from Bud Musselman, Dick Constable, Ditty Jones, Tony Cervino, Dwight Speaker, Dick Beaver, Ronnie Fitzkee, June Griffiths, Bob McCoy and Tom Faulkner. Bill Atherholt, who booted four straight extra points against the Dragon, and Nelson Gible, his assistant in holding the pigskin, will remain in the role of specialists.

New Uniforms

The Bullets will be attired in their new uniforms which consist of silver pants with orange and blue stripes, and silver headgear. The squad will wear blue jerseys with large orange numerals.

One of the largest opening day crowds in recent years is expected to attend inasmuch as the Bullets will not play at home again until October 23 when Muhlenberg comes here.

Gates to the field will open at 1 o'clock at which time 1,500 general admission tickets will be placed on sale. Sections A and B in the south stands are for reserved ticket holders while sections C and D are reserved for students.

The college band with 69 members is the largest in the school's history and will be on hand for the game. Paul A. Harner is again directing the musicians.

BIGLER ELEVEN AND RED LION PLAY 13-13 TIE

Biglerville high school's football team failed to hold a 13-0 advantage gained at half time and was forced to accept a 13-13 deadlock with Red Lion in a Conference of the Roses game played Thursday evening at Biglerville before approximately 3,000 fans.

The Cannons apparently had the game wrapped up at half time but Red Lion struck twice in rapid succession through the air in the third period and a deadlock resulted.

Coach Gene Haas' lads scored midway in the opening period when they reeled off four straight first downs in a march from their own 30-yard line. Clark Heller finally plunging over from the two-yard line. Heller then place kicked the extra point.

Grimm Scores

Midway in the second period the Cannons halted a Red Lion drive on their own 27 and again showed a smashing drive that brought four straight first downs, a pass from Heller to George Slaybaugh putting the ball on the one-foot line from where Ronnie Grimm plunged through the line. Heller's placement was blocked.

Early in the third quarter Red Lion tallied its first touchdown. Heim whipped a pass to Barshinger who lateraled to Stump, the latter racing to Biglerville's 15. Two plays later Heim scored from the 12 and Thomas added the point on a placement boot.

On the following kickoff the ball rebounded off a Biglerville player and was recovered on the Cannons' 49 by a Red Lion player. That set the stage for Heim to whip a long pass to Thomas on the Biglerville 5 from where he stepped into the end zone. Thomas' placement was wide.

Holt Lion Threat

Several plays later Red Lion recovered a Biglerville fumble deep in Cannor territory but the stalwart Biglerville defense halted the drive on the 3 and the ball was booted out to the 39.

Bob Weikert intercepted a Red Lion pass about the middle of the final period and Biglerville ripped off two first downs before the visitors succeeding in holding on the 8-yard mark.

Next Thursday evening the Cannons will meet Washington Township at Biglerville.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
SOMETHING IN RESERVEI enjoy every athletic contest.
Each is a demonstration of character of the personality of the contestant, but most of all of the reserve forces that have been drawn upon for the final victory. In the end it is endurance that counts most of all.It is from our reserve forces, upon which we depend, that we make each day a better one, and each attempt at excelling at something, that we become notable or distinguished. The speaker in a debate saves his strongest arguments for the sum-up. The fighter knows that if he exhausts his reserve strength he will go down to defeat.We never know just how much reserve we have, but if we keep saving our strength, if we do not wear our nerves away with worry and resentments, we can be assured of enough to carry us through many a test and trial. We can even surprise ourselves!People who save and invest wisely of their earnings have something to fall back upon when times are difficult and friends are few. Many a one has had his years of savings wiped out, only to come back with greater will and courage, taking a high stand again — because he had a great reserve of faith.If you always keep something in reserve, you can walk with a high head and a calm mind. It was the reserve W. E. Henley had that carried him through a great physical trial, and which inspired him to write that great little poem "Invictus," in which he said, "My head is bloody, but unbowed."He who refuses ever to be defeated, recreates a reserve that makes of him a living conqueror. It is well always to note the silent man, for he may have more in reserve than you ever imagine. Keep your eye on him, and better not rouse him! How many examples we have of the small-town boy leaving home, later to distinguish himself in a most unusual manner, and most unexpected. And all because of an accumulated reserve, ready to grasp the opportunity.It is well to accumulate all the knowledge that you can, keeping it in reserve. It may come in for use when you least expect it! You'd better keep in full view the old adage, "Knowledge is power."Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Adjustments."

Just Folks

The Poet of the People
POSSESSIVE CHILDA toy upon the floor can stay
From morning to the close of day, Nor will the child who owns it care
So long as it is lying there.Unwanted it appears to be.
But, let its little owner see Another child come romping in
To play with it, and there's a din.The instant that another takes That toy, a scene the youngster makes.The parents hasten, soon or late,
The quarreling pair to separate.My children first I've watched, and now
Their children start the self-same row.And I have wondered, as I've smiled, Who's more possessive than a child?

LessonA LIBRARY OF RELIGIONS LITERATURE

By Rev. Howard R. Gold, D.D.

Margaret C. Gold.

Psalm 119:97-105; John 20:30-31

II Timothy 3:16-17.

Memory selection: The word of our God shall stand forever. Isaiah 40:8.An attractive study assignment has been given us for the last quarter of the year: the Literature of the Bible. Emphasis is to be laid on the Holy Book as such, and upon the literary forms we find in it. But the main stress will still be on the content whether it is biography, prophecy, poetry, history or parable.However, it gives us a greater appreciation of the Bible to know that its invaluable messages come to us in types of literature unexcelled by anything else we have. We shall be reminded of this again and again as we proceed through the quarter.Because of the eternal truths contained in the Bible and its high literary quality no one can claim to be truly educated unless he is familiar with this Book. There comes to mind the well known declaration of the late Professor William Lyon Phelps of Yale: "A knowledge of the Bible without a college education is better than a college education without a knowledge of the Bible."And we may add that the Bible is so frequently quoted in much of our best secular literature that many expressions and passages are meaningful for one who is ignorant of the Bible.A Library
It is well to remember that the Bible is not a single book at all but rather a Hebrew-Christian library; a collection of books written and assembled under the direct inspiration of God. The time during which they were written covers many centuries, and the men who wrote them were of various types — kings, prophets, missionaries, preachers.But there is a remarkable unity of purpose evident in the Bible as a whole. It is to reveal God and his will for mankind. In this library are two shelves. On one are found the books of the Old Testament or Covenant — thirty-nine; on the other the books of the New Testament — twenty-seven. In the former group we find several leading thoughts occupying the writers. One is God's law. "Oh how love I thy law!" ex-claims the writer of the 119th Psalm.
The first five books of the Bible are mainly about the law in its various aspects. Then comes the long and bitter schooling of the Hebrews until the idea of one God, and only one, became their definite belief.
Note how frequently they lapsed into pagan practices and worship in spite of the best efforts of their prophets. Again, and this is of particular significance, the expectation of a Messiah to come runs, as has been said, like a golden thread throughout the Old Testament. This is especially noted in the prophetic writings. Read again the 53rd chapter of Isaiah about "

DETROIT TIGERS BETWEEN TRIBE AND LOOP TITLE

By RALPH RODEN

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
The Detroit Tigers once again stand in the way of Cleveland's bid for its first American league pennant since 1920.

The Indians can assure themselves of at least a tie by beating the Bengals today. It's the first game of Cleveland's three-game series with Detroit.

The front-running tribe leads Boston and New York by a game and a half. Two Cleveland triumphs or one victory plus one defeat for the Yankees and Red Sox will enable the Indians to clinch the pennant. Eight years ago the Tigers not only blocked a Cleveland flag drive, but went on to grab the pennant themselves. This time the Tribe expects to reverse the tables. For the opener today Bob Lemon (20-13) will face the Tigers with Virgil Trucks (13-13) on the hill for the Bengals. Tribe Manager Lou Boudreau plans to follow up with Gene Bearden and Bob Feller. Tiger Manager Steve O'Neill will counter with Fred Hutchinson and Hal Newhouser.

The Yanks beat the Philadelphia Athletics, 9-7, and the Red Sox knocked off the Washington Senators, 7-3, yesterday to keep their faint flag hopes alive. The Indians had the day off.

Raschi Saves Day

Nifty relief pitching on the part of Vic Raschi saved the day for the Yanks. The Star Yankee righthander entered the game in the ninth inning with Elmer Valo at bat with a 3-1 count, the bases loaded and one out. Raschi threw a fourth ball run but then he fanned slugger Sam to Valo to force in the A's seventh run but then he fanned Slugger Sam Chapman and got Buddy Rosar to fly out to end the game.

The Yanks ponedged across six runs in the first two innings in the game that was held up for 30 minutes by rain. Lefty Lou Brissie was supposed to start for the A's, but the young war hero developed an infection in his wounded left leg and was taken to a hospital for treatment. Joe Coleman started instead and was pounded out in the second when the Yanks scored four runs. The Yanks continued their assault against Charley Harris and Alex Kellner piling up a 9-3 lead for Southpaw Ed Lopat going into the eighth inning. The A's scored three in the eighth.

The Red Sox, led by Dom DiMaggio and Johnny Pesky, socked three Washington pitchers for 15 hits. Pesky and DiMaggio collected three safeties apiece and drove in five runs. The Sox clipped Early Wynn, who suffered his 19th loss, for two runs in the first and drove the Washington righthander to cover with a five run bombardment in the fifth.

Cards, Dodgers in Tie

The Tigers turned back the St. Louis Browns, 7-2, in the other American league game.

In the National league the St. Louis Cardinals took a day-night doubleheader from the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-1 and 4-1, to tie the Brooklyn Dodgers for second place. Stan Musial's 39th homer with two on and Ron Northey's 11th with none on in the first inning featured the Cards' day game victory. Harry (the Cat) Brecheen posted his 20th triumph against seven losses while stopping the Pirates on seven safeties.

COUNTRY CLUB WILL CONDUCT GOLF TOURNEY

Playoffs for the golf championship of the Gettysburg Country club will be started Saturday on the club course.

Thirty-four members turned in score cards confirmed by another member and the lowest 32 were picked to play in the tournament consisting of four flights.

A match will be held every week with the first and second players meeting each other, the third and in the night game. The Chicago Cubs tied the Cincinnati Reds for seventh place as young Cliff Chambers shaded veteran Ken Raffensberger of the Reds, 1-0. The Dodgers' scheduled game with Boston was postponed because of rain. New York and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

Berliners Take Heart In Western Allies' Promise That Air Lift Will Boom

PLEDGING FOOD AND COAL THRU COMING WINTER

BY DONALD DOANE

Berlin, Oct. 1 (AP)—Berliners took heart today in a western allied promise that they will have adequate stocks of air-borne food and coal this winter.

Col. Frank L. Howley, U. S. commandant in Berlin, said the American-British airlift is defeating the Soviet blockade of the capital and that food and fuel surpluses are being increased daily for the 2,000,000 residents of western Berlin.

Howley conceded that "I can see a cold winter ahead for Berlin," when he spoke at a news conference yesterday on the 100th day of the blockade.

Gaining Ground Slowly

He added, however, that "the airlift has been more than meeting Berlin's minimum requirements."

He explained that when the United States and Britain began shuttling food and fuel into Berlin from the western zones June 26 there was food on hand for 34 days. Now there is food for 39 days. There is now a 48-day supply of flour, the most essential food item, on hand as compared to 25 days at the start.

And the planes have even gained some ground on the coal supply.

An average of 2,300 metric tons of coal is being flown into Berlin every day, Howley said, while the planned consumption is only about 2,100 metric tons.

Reds Are Skeptical

This, admittedly, will not keep Berlin's industries working at full capacity nor even maintain comfortable warmth in its homes.

But one German official assured Howley that Berliners were willing to endure the hardship. "The population knows it cannot and must not sell its freedom for a hot meal," said Gustav Klingelhofer, head of the city's economics department.

German Communists greeted with skepticism promises of continued aid.

More Planes Arrive

"Sooner or later the airlift will break down, and what will happen then?" Hermann Matern, chairman of Berlin's Communist-Dominated Socialist Unity party (SED), asked last night at a Communist-sponsored meeting on winter relief measures.

The western promises, however, were backed up by an announcement from U. S. air force headquarters in Wiesbaden yesterday that 12 more C-54 Skymasters, each able to carry 10 tons of cargo, arrived there from the Far East to join the air supply armada.

A final three-power agreement on the economic merger of the three western occupation zones of Germany is expected within a few days, allied sources at Frankfurt said today.

CAPTURE THREE WHO FLED JAIL

Pottstown, Pa., Oct. 1 (AP)—Three men who fled the Schuylkill county prison Tuesday are back behind bars.

Joseph Rogers, 45, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Herbert Klock, 30, Ashland, Pa., were caught last night after they had hid within less than a half-mile of the prison for two days and a night, police said, while Raymond Thomas, 46, of Pottsville, was apprehended Tuesday night.

Recognition by a former Ashland neighbor of Klock led to the two men's capture by Lt. William Downey, Lt. William Reinhart and Patrolman Bruno Tucci. Police said the men offered only slight resistance and that Rogers was carrying a toy pistol.

Charles Heizenroth of Ashland was sitting in his parked car outside Pottsville hospital and recognized Klock as he and Rogers walked past. He notified police, who quickly picked up their trail.

Rogers had been in solitary confinement for 22 hours daily on orders of County Detective Lewis D. Bunno who said he found a rope in the prisoner's cell. Rogers claimed the rope and gun were thrown in his cell by another prisoner.

Rogers is awaiting a new trial after his conviction on a holdup attempt at the Colitz Breaker Co. here March 4. Klock is serving three to six years for armed robbery while Washington, October 1 (AP)—The Federal Communication commission Thursday announced that it is temporarily suspending approval of any new television stations in order to "polish" the service already authorized.

BERLIN ISSUE UP ON MONDAY

Paris, Oct. 1 (AP)—The United Nations Security Council on Monday takes up the most explosive issue of its three-year history—the Western charge that Russia threatens the peace of the world by her blockade of Berlin.

The Council announced Thursday that Chief U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin will be in the chair as the October president when the session opens at 3 p. m. (9 a. m. EST.) However, the U. S. delegation said it expects Austin will step down when the case comes up and surrender the chairmanship to Argentina, next in line for it.

If the Russians try to bar the Berlin case from the agenda, Austin is reported planning to remain as chairman until the procedural battle is over. Seven votes are required to approve admission of an item, and the big-power veto does not apply.

The Council's announcement came shortly after the East-West dispute on atomic controls went before the 58-nation political committee of the Assembly. Austin, in a speech to the committee, reaffirmed United States' readiness to submit its atomic energy production to international control.

Austin said it was Russia's fault that international control of atomic weapons never came into being. He urged big-power cooperation on the atom and reasserted American sup-

Liquor Board To Use Straight Line

Harrisburg, Oct. 1 (AP)—A straight line will now determine whether a liquor license applicant's place of business is within 300 feet of a church or school, the State Liquor Control board said Wednesday.

A board spokesman explained that in the past, measurements were made from a point in front of the entrance to the proposed licensed place to a point on the curb in front of the church or school.

In the future, if the applicant has a place around the corner from a church or a school, a straight line between the buildings and not the distance around the corner will deport of the much-debated Baruch plan for controls.

RESCUE BOY, 12, IN PLANE CRASH; MOTHER KILLED

Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 1 (AP)—RCAP flyers today praised the courage of a seriously injured 12-year-old boy who was rescued from a wrecked plane after hanging head-downward for 42 hours beside the body of his mother.

The boy, Michael Lintner, suffered a compound skull fracture, a broken right arm and frozen feet. He underwent surgery at an Edmonton hospital Wednesday and his condition was reported critical.

Michael was being flown by his mother, Mrs. A. L. Lintner, from their home at Anchorage, Alaska, to school in the states when their plane crashed in rugged country 65 miles northwest of Fort Nelson, B. C.

Blame Downdraft
The plane wreckage was sighted Wednesday by an RCAP plane which led a ground party to the scene.

Two of the rescuers, Sgt. Larry Poulson and leading airman K. W. Clark, said the boy was conscious when they reached him.

"The boy was one of the bravest I have ever seen in my air force experience," said Clark. "He knew his mother was dead but never mentioned it."

The boy's father, Lt. Col. A. L. Lintner of the army reserve stationed at Great Falls, Mont., flew to meet the boy at Fort Nelson.

Mrs. Lintner, who has flown 435 hours, was flying at the time from Watson Lake, Y. T., about 250 miles to Fort Nelson, following the Alaska highway. The plane crashed on snow-covered Steamboat mountain, in territory described as particularly dangerous for light planes. RCAP flyers expressed belief the craft was caught in a downdraft.

Austin To Step Down For Debates

Paris, Oct. 1 (AP)—The U. S. delegation said today its permanent delegate on the Security Council, Warren R. Austin, will give up the council presidency during the Berlin crisis debates. It is understood the Berlin case will come up Monday.

A spokesman said this will be the procedure: Austin, who is to become president of the council tomorrow for October, will take the chair at each sitting. Once the council has formally placed the Berlin case on the order of the day, he will surrender the chair to a representative of Argentina, the next nation in line for the presidency.

On all questions except Berlin, Austin will preside during October.

Blame Negligence For Man's Death

Nazareth, Pa., Oct. 1 (AP)—A coroner's jury found that lack of safety precautions caused the death of 25-year-old Nevlin E. Nicholas of Easton at the Nazareth Cement company two weeks ago.

The jury said yesterday that testimony showed one rack was not bolted down and ruled "the accident could have been avoided if proper safety measures were taken."

Nicholas was crushed between two racks loaded with heavy metal plates.

Asks Investigation Of Moving Dam Pier

Pittsburgh, Oct. 1 (AP)—Congressman James C. Fulton wants a congressional investigation of the moving pier on the Conemaugh dam project.

A recent five-inch landslide caused two cracks in the pier totalling a quarter of an inch in width. The pier was the same one that broke off at the base a year ago as a result of an earth slide.

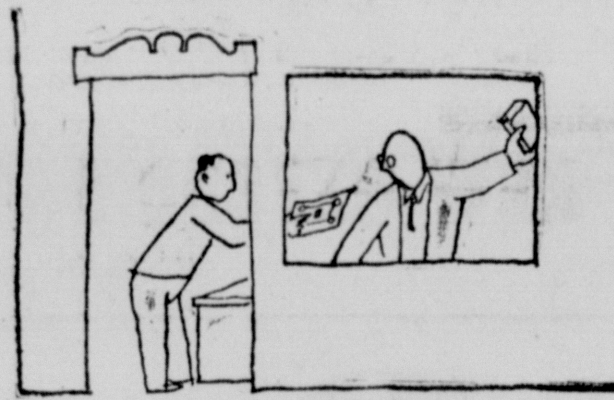

Fulton yesterday took issue with Army engineers who announced after an inspection of the site that it would not be necessary to replace the pier on the $34,000,000 project.

The Republican congressman said he would bring the matter to the attention of the house sub-committee on appropriations immediately. He declared: "I want a thorough investigation made to see that similar defects do not occur in the dam itself and cause a 'Jonestown flood' in Pittsburgh."

STERN GANG'S HEAD NABBED

Tel Aviv, Israel, Oct. 1 (AP)—Reliable informants said Thursday Israeli police have arrested Nathan Friedman-Yellin, head of the Stern Gang.

A terrorist arm of the Stern Gang, a Jewish underground extremist organization, has boasted that it was responsible for the assassination of Count Folke Bernadotte, the U.N.'s Palestine mediator, in Jerusalem September 17.

The informants said Friedman-Yellin was arrested in Haifa last night, together with one of his right hand men. In the room where they found Friedman-Yellin, and in a search of Friedman-Yellin's apartment in Tel Aviv, police were said to have found "documents throwing new light" on Sternist activities.

Friedman-Yellin was reported to have gone underground after the slaying of Bernadotte touched off an Israeli government campaign to root out terrorists. It was as an underground.

"T. R.'S" WIDOW EXPIRES AT 87

60yster Bay, N. Y., Oct. 1 (AP)—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, 87, widow of the President, died Thursday at her home, Sagamore Hill. Mrs. Roosevelt had been in ill health for some time at her home.

A native of Norwich, Conn., she married Theodore Roosevelt in 1886. Mrs. Roosevelt lived to receive news of the death of three of her four sons in war. Quentin died in aerial combat in World War I and Theodore, Jr., and Kermit in World War II. Archibald, who survives her, served in both wars. Her daughter, Ethel, became Mrs. Richard Derby. The stepdaughter, Alice, married Nicholas Longworth.

She and Theodore Roosevelt were married in St. George's church, London, after the death of his first wife. During her reign as America's First Lady, Mrs. Roosevelt put the accent on domesticity. Many persons early in the century revered a picture of her doing needlework in the White House.

The 26th President's widow spent her latter years at Sagamore Hill, a rambling Victorian country house overlooking Long Island Sound. The house was filled with mementoes of "Teddy's" days in the White House, his foreign travels and hunting trips.

17 HURT WHEN GREYHOUND BUS STRIKES TRUCK

Philadelphia, Oct. 1 (AP)—Seven passengers were injured early Thursday as a Greyhound express bus plowed into a tractor trailer that had jackknifed and overturned in its path.

Four of the injured were treated at Bryn Mawr hospital. The others were treated at the scene just west of suburban Berwyn. Some of the 35 passengers, many of them sleeping, were thrown to the floor of the bus.

The crash occurred at 5 a. m. as the bus sped from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia. Police said the wrecked tractor trailer blocked two lanes of the four-lane highway. Two other lanes were barred by another truck whose driver stopped to see if anyone was hurt in the upset.

Canned Food Scattered
Almost all the tractor trailer's cargo—600 cases of canned string beans and baked beans—was strewn across the highway. Lloyd M. Scattergood, 29, Union Bridge, Md., was driving the tractor trailer from Warminster, Md., to Philadelphia when it upset on the rain wet Lancaster pike.

Detained at Bryn Mawr hospital for x-rays were Mrs. Rose Sharp, 50, Pittsburgh, contusion of the nose; her sister-in-law, Mrs. Helen Sharp, 53, Ocean City, N. J., injury of left shoulder; Abe Ellashof, 76, Blairsville, Pa., possible pelvis fracture, and Mrs. Annie Hinds, 77, Pittsburgh, left leg injury.

Treated at the scene for cuts and bruises and shock were Charles S. McNally, Philadelphia; Willis C. Poole, a soldier stationed at Fort Klimer, N. J.; Jacob Pont, Detroit; John Harvey, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Mrs. Filomena Cillini, Torrington, Conn.; Mrs. Mary Freiburger, Mt. Ephraim, N. J.; Russell T. Pease, Homestead, Pa.; Mrs. H. C. Hagerstrom, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Leila O. Rommel, Reno, Nev.; Helen Rye and her sister, Cecelia, Bridgeton, N. J.; Mrs. Florence Arce, Philadelphia, and Mrs. Martha Bathgate, R. D. 1, Bridgeton, N. J.

Sitdown Truckers Face Penalties

Harrisburg, Oct. 1 (AP)—Truckers who participate in sitdowns on the Pennsylvania Turnpike to avoid the state's truck-weight laws, face a sharp crackdown by the Commonwealth.

Suspensions of driving privileges of four truck drivers already have been recommended by Gov. James H. Duff's highway safety advisory committee.

The committee said the drivers refused to leave the toll-road at Irwin earlier this week because "a state police weighing detail was waiting for them just outside the gate on Route 30."

The committee's action, a spokesman said, was designed "to curb further defiance of the authority of the state." State police reported to the committee as many as 75 big trucks were parked on the turnpike at one time after westbound truckers were tipped state police were weighing.

Hanover Red Cross Secretatry Resigns
William M. Montgomery, president of Hanover chapter, American Red Cross, Thursday announced the resignation of Miss Mabel E. Stone as executive secretary of the chapter, effective Oct. 28.

Mr. Montgomery said that Miss Stone's resignation was presented at a session of the chapter's board of directors Tuesday night. He added that "machinery is now in motion" to elect her successor.

A native of Harrisburg, Miss Stone said she plans to accept a position with the Department of Public Assistance at the state capital.

Miss Stone went to Hanover in January, 1944, from Baltimore where she was associated with the social service department at Johns Hopkins hospital.

FINISH FARM'S "FACE LIFTING"

Salisbury, Pa., Oct. 1 (AP)—The $20,000 face-lifting job on the Parke farm is due to be completed today with a wandering audience of 40,000 watching the demonstration.

An army of 400 men began the job yesterday of transforming the worn-out hilly terrain into useful farm acreage.

A hundred different farm machines, jeeps and even walkie-talkie radios are condensing a 10-year job into just two days. The two Parke brothers, who bought the farm with a GI loan 18 months ago, are mostly busy keeping out of the way.

"It's like hitting a real jackpot," William T. (Jack) Parke, 30, said as he watched the huge demonstration by soil conservation experts. David Parke, 25, said he and his brother were "humbly thankful" for having their 219-acre farm selected for the third and biggest demonstration to be put on in the state.

One of the big projects was the digging of a pond near the farmhouse as a source of water for cattle. Other work included the laying of 300 feet of drain tiling, building a mile and quarter of fence, planting thousands of trees and spreading 125 tons of lime, 2 tons of superphosphate and other fertilizer. These supplies, $10,000 worth, were all donated.

At a banquet at an inn near the farm last night, Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan praised Pennsylvania's farmers.

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 1 (AP)—A private plane piloted by Eugene Cooper landed safely Thursday in a field near Clinton, N. J., after three hours of circling the closed in Allentown-Bethlehem-Easton airport.

The Eastern pilot left another nearby airport at 8:40 a. m., for Ambler, Pa., and soon ran into soupy weather. He contacted the airport by radio 23 times and finally was steered into clearing weather. He brought the two-place plane down at 11:45 a. m.

Pennsylvania is a Great State —tell someone about it

Pennsylvania leads the nation in 50 major industries. It produces more power than any other State. It has more skilled workers than any other State. It is No. 1 in the output of many raw materials. It provides 10% of all the manufacturing employment and payrolls in the nation. It is a bigger market than many whole nations. It has a friendly State Government and a fair tax structure. It has more towns and small cities than any other State; more people living on farms than any but one other State; and it is the only State in the Union with two of the 10 biggest cities. It has a billion dollar farm industry and ranks away up in farm cash income, in dairying and many fruits, and it produces more vegetables than all of New England.

A movement is under way all over the State to boost Pennsylvania. You can help by boosting your own communities, by attracting new industries and by helping those already here to prosper and expand. Will you help?
